

CONTENTS OF VOLUME IX.

	PAGE		PAGE
A DASH AT CAPE COD,	62	NEW ENGLAND MILITARY WORTHIES
A LOVE CHASE,	79	OF THE OLDEN TIMES—MYLES
A LAZZIS,	129	STANDISH,	113
A NATIONAL DRAMA,	148	ODORS OF PLANTS,	38
A LOVER'S STORY,	234	OLD ADOBE, THE: A Romance, per-
A WORD WITH "SHAKESPEARE'S		haps,	169
SCHOLAR,"	286	OLNSTED'S TEXAS JOURNEY,	274
ABOUT DOGS,	288	OUR AUTHORS AND AUTHORSHIP—
AN OBSERVATION UPON THE "NEW		MELVILLE AND CURTIS,	384
YORK OBSERVER,"	524	PETER FLINT'S STORY,	44
BOSTON LADIES' RECEPTION OF WASH-		PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY,	635
INGTON, THE,	154	QUESTION OF THEATRES, THE,	642
BROADWAY BEDEVILED,	282	RHINE CASTLE, THE,	152
CORNELIUS AGRIPPA—DOCTOR,		RHECUS—A Story of Too Late,	423
KNIGHT, AND MAGICIAN,	70	ROSART, THE—A Sheriff,	503
CHINAMAN, THE—Domestic, Scholastic,		SOUTHERN LITERATURE,	207
Iconoclastic, and Imperial,	337	SONG ON THE SHORE,	413
CALLEY, MISS,	586	SLAVE'S STORY, A,	614
CRAWFORD'S STATUE OF "AMERICA,"		TAILS,	351
LINKS TO,	597	THE TRAIL, THE TRACE, AND THE
CITY AND COUNTRY SPRING,	620	WAGON ROAD; Being Sketches of
COLLEGE LIFE A HUNDRED YEARS		Wild Life West of the Missouri,	449
AGO,	630	THE MERRY BELLS SHALL RING,	463
CHARLOTTE BRONTË,	648	TWO YEARS AGO,	505
DELICATE HEATH,	300	TO LULIE,	574
" " Part II.,	494	TO THE KING,	613
EFFORTS TOWARDS A MUSEUM OF		WITCHING TIMES, 11, 188, 297, 394, 515, 621
FOOLS,	260	WEBSTER'S PRIVATE CORRESPOND-
EHEU! EHEU!	383	ENCE,	225
FOUR SEASONS, THE,	368	WE KNEW IT WOULD RAIN,	367
FILLIBUSTERING,	425	YOUNG LADYHOOD,	60
FRIPPERY,	464	EDITORIAL NOTES—
GEORGE SAND, MEMOIRS OF,	175	AMERICAN LITERATURE AND REPRINTS.—
" " " " Second		Beaunarchais and his Times—S. G. Good-
Article,	598	rich's Reminiscences of his Life and Times
GREEN CLOTH, THE,	530	—Mr. Freeman Hunt's Lives of American
GREENWAY COURT,	561	Merchants—Norhoff's Whaling and Fishing
HOW THEY LIVE AT PARIS,	255	—The Court of Napoleon—Darley's Illus-
HARPERS' MONTHLY AND WEEKLY,	293	trations of Margaret—The Illustrated Tom
HOW MR. BIFFLES WAS GARROTED,	414	Thumb—Photographic Illustrations of Scrip-
HISTORY, AS EXPOUNDED BY THE SU-		ture Scenes—The Schoolfellow—The Para-
PREME COURT,	538	greens in Paris, on a Visit to the Universal
ITALIANS IN AMERICA,	1	Exhibition—Mr. Willis's Paul Fane—Flem-
INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT,	84	ish Tales of Hendrik Conscience—Julian;
JOLLY HERMITAGE, THE,	48	or, Scenes in Judea—Milleducia, a Thou-
JOE'S COURTSHIP—A Connecticut		sand Pleasant Things, selected from Notes
Confidance,	484	and Quercus—Poems of William W. Story
JUNE,	631	—Poems of the late Francis S. Key—Mr.
KRAFFT, MR. KARL JOSEPH, OF THE		Milburn's Rifle, Axe, and Saddle-bag—
OLD CALIFORNIANS,	265	Mr. Magroon's Westward Empire—Harper's
LUNA THROUGH A LORONETTE,	9	School History—Stewart's Brazil and La
LOVE,	235	Plata—The personal Record of a Cruise—
LIFE AT THE ORIGINAL WATER-CURE		Yonkum's History of Texas—Kansas; its
LECTURES AND LECTURERS,	317	Interior and Exterior Life, by Mrs. Robin-
LUCK,	654	son—Dr. Carpenter's Microscope and its
MRS. BROWNING'S NEW POEM,	28	Revelations—The Medical Professor in An-
MY HOTEL,	375	cient Times—Mannal of Marble and Mar-
MACKERELING IN THE "BAT,"	575	ble Working—The Book of Job revised—

PAGE	PAGE
Dr. Hodge's Essays and Reviews—Dr. McCoah's Typical Forms—Dr. Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit. 92	—Why should not our Ladies Skate; surely, a healthier amusement than Dancing—The bark Resolute, and its reception in England by Her Majesty Victoria. 221
Doré; Essays Biographical and Critical, by Henry T. Tuckerman—Seed Grain for Thought and Discussion; a Compilation by Mrs. Anna C. Lowell—Charicles, by Josiah Quincy—André; a Tragedy, in Five Acts, by W. W. Lord—Plays and Poems, by George H. Boker—Songs of Summer, by Richard Henry Stoddard—Words for the Hour, by the Author of Passion Flowers—Studies in the Field and Forest, by Wilson Flagg. 215	PUTNAM'S KALEIDOSCOPE.—Mozier's Sculptures—The Noses of Eminent Men—Alas, Poor Shepherd!—Motleyisms—Our Private Libraries—Communications for the "Kaleidoscope." 336
Dr. Piper's Trees of America—Minard Lefever's Architectural Instructor—Haswell's Mechanics' Tables—Mr. Prescott's Robertson's Charles the Fifth—Letters and Dispatches of Major Nathanael Greene—Mr. Wright's History of France—Dr. Hitchcock's Religious Truth Illustrated from Science—Count Gasparin's Scientific Exposition of Modern Spiritualism—The Youth of the Old Dominion; by Samuel Hopkins—Dickens's Works for Little Folks. 322	A Town Eclogue—The Academy of Design, Spring Exhibition—Phonographic Poetry—Length of the Day or Night—A Revolution in Hoops—Philological Reform—Correspondence. 439
Dr. Kane—Household Edition of Scott—Fowler's American Pulpit—Mrs. Sigourney's Examples from the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries—Wise's Scamparias—Doubts concerning the Battle of Bunker Hill—Caldwell's Poems—Vaux's Villas and Cottages—Simms's Wigwam and the Cabin—Parker's Minnesota Hand-book, and Iowa Hand-book—Andrews's Minnesota and Dakota. 436	A Leaf from the Century Papers—A Morning in the Studios—Church—Elliott—Hicks—Kensett—Lang—A great Post—Five Pounds Reward—Model Criticism—Short Answers to Long Letters. 553
Spencer's Poem—Mackenzie's Fraserian Papers—Elliott's New England History—Osceola's Sultan and his People—Bishop Hopkins's American Citizen—Spurgeon's Sermons—New Biographies—Doran's Monarchs retired from Business—Souvestre's Brittany and La Vendée. 548	June—Church's Niagara—Barbison—Sack and Sugar—The Parks of Cincinnati. 664
Mrs. Jamieson's Characteristics of Women—Gurowski's Europe and America—Gladstone's Englishman in Kansas—Major Jones's Courtship and Travels—Mrs. Hent's Love after Marriage—Frank Forester's Sporting Scenes and Characters—Bacon's Essays—Railway Classics—Baird's Modern Greece—Barry Cornwall's Dramatic Scenes—Reed's Lectures—Schaff's Germany; its Universities, Theology, and Religion—Waverley Novels—Miss Strickland's Lives of the Queens of Scotland—Macaulay's Sketches. 659	THE WORLD OF NEW YORK.—The Summer loth to leave us—The necessities of Winter Life—A "Happy New Year"—New Year's Day in New York—Balls, public and private—The Academy of Music—Madame Lagrange—Traviata—Miss Laura Keane—Young New York—M. Thalberg—Darley's Margaret—Mr. Palmer and his Precious Gifts—Mr. Welford's Engraving, from Mr. Wandesforde's Picture of Florence Nightingale. 108
COMMENTS ON CURRENT MATTERS.—Congress was opened last month—Some Revolutionary hopes of another War between France and England—The Edinburgh Review—Censorial attention to a batch of Young Poets—Jefferson's account of Patrick Henry in Webster's Writings—Major Sears' Diving Machine—Douglas Jerrold's republication of Mrs. Caudle's Lectures—Some Considerations of Science—The Costumes of the present day—Criticisms of the London Saturday Review. 104	An Old Adage—The Love of Art—Justinus Kerner, the German Poet—It is good to cultivate Society—The great Cities of Europe and their Charms—The Arts of Europe—Dullness of American Society—There is no want of Liberty in America—Everybody wants the Opera—Difficulties in the way—Why is this?—The Enterprising Mr. Strakosch—An Opera can be established in New York—The début of Madame de Wilhorst—Wallack's Theatre and Miss Matilda Heron—The Academy Exhibition—Palmer's Marbles—The Crystal Palace, and what we would have the dear Reader do. 330
What Mr. Milburn, the blind preacher, has to say about the Influence of the Present Condition of Society on Early Marriages—Why should we not establish more Baby Houses?—People in England still bent on looking for Sir John Franklin—The Malay's Plea of Insanity; the real Malay was a Wall Street Broker—The Electric Telegraph in Europe	Spring should have come—Cheated by February—Winter not over—Lent and the coming Easter—A Christian Man—No Balls in Lent—Easy to caricature its observance—Mrs. Smith's sackcloth and Mrs. Brown's holy horror—Let us be grateful—Mrs. Smith's Ball: a festivity or a frivolity—Not an entertainment—Not a satisfactory state of things—Balls vs. Processions, Spectacles, etc.—Dancing Women—Christendom emancipates and refines amusements—The first Ball—Our Forefathers and Balls—Ball on the marriage of the Duke of Burgundy—The Supper and Dancing—An admirer of the Grand Monarque—Something to be remembered—A rare ornament of an American Ball-room—The World's eagerness and curiosity—Is all amusement frivolous?—No adequate and legitimate excitements—Forgetfulness of our Tradesmen, Mechanics, etc.—A few Questions. 443
	Two Themes—Seize the flying moment—A pleasant belief—Mrs. Howe's "Leonore"—The first night—Made-up houses—"Leonore" not a play—No lovers of cant—Com position of the play—The failure of "Leonore"—Miss Heron charmed New York—Her imperfection—Our preference. 557

